... With Love from your Pastor

Happy Fall Ya'!!! Have you had your first pumpkin drink?

As we enter into the month of October, I hope we find some rest from the heat and some rest in the Lord! We will spend the month of October considering "Our presence in OUR community" How are you present in your neighborhood, workplace or school?

Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all. —Mark 9.35

Not subservient, not inferior to others, but helpful, in support, in service. You're not indentured or obligated; you serve in love that is yours to give. Your task today is to serve others—not necessarily to please them, not to save them or "fix" them, but to offer grace, to bless them, to set before them wholeness of life, to open doors that set them free, to speak a word that heals and does not dishonor them. Your task today is not to use or conquer others, but to offer what love or joy you can in service to their new life.

Today, for everyone you meet, God is the chef of grace and you are their server.
